MAGG

Debbi informed the meeting that a new directory would be coming out. She also told the meeting that the Mapua Magic leaflets had run out.

Phoenix Cards

It was agreed that the school library was not a good venue for selling the cards and it will be repeated nearer Christmas.

Grants

Anna Crosbie told the meeting that the application to the Canterbury Trust was in hand.

Landscaping

Eric Reade is making the picnic tables and we will be asking families and businesses to sponsor them. Mary Duncan to sort out materials.

Recipe Book

Leigh reported that recipes were coming in very slowly and asked PTA members to canvas any groups they attend. She said she had approached a graphic designer and that half the sections in the book had been sponsored. It was noted that 500 books will be printed and this should generate between $5,000 - $6,000.

MD

Term 3 Social Event

It was decided to hold this during the skipping day at school rather than as an evening event. PTA to help out with drinks etc and provide a prize draw.

Car Boot

This is being held on 9th September

Caroline Lusty, Malcolm Hepburn, Fiona Bibbysmith and Sally Thomas all available to help.

Caroline – Bacon and to bring large flask

Leigh – sausages

Any Other Business

Electric frying pan wanted for school with a slice and cleaner. Caroline to purchase.

It was reported that two tables and a coat hanger had been donated to the school. It was suggested we put them on “trade me” to see what we can raise.

Meeting ended 9.00pm.
